Alison Hendy

Alison is the Children's Work Advisor for the Diocese of Guildford. She also runs the free resource library at Guildford Cathedral. Chat to her over lunch if you wish to join.

Berni Commissiong

Berni heads up Camberley Youth For Christ. He has a passion for Youth Work and lots of experience.

Martin Cornes

Martin has been the Youth Minister at St Peter's Church for over 17 years. He is passionate about discipling young people to come to and grow in their faith. He is a loyal supporter of Reading FC.

Heather Hughes

Heather has been the Children's Minister at St Peter's Church for over 5 years. She has just completed a BA in Children's & Youth Ministry at Cliff College.

Seminar Info

A. Youth Culture (Berni)

A look at the issues that our youth are facing in the 21st Century and our theological and practical response to it.

B. 21st Century Kids (Alison)

What pressures are on our children and their families? Are the traditional Sunday School methods meeting the needs in the 21st Century?

C. Youth Discipleship (Berni)

What does it mean to be a discipler of young people?

D. Free Range/Barn/Caged? The Art of Behaviour Management (Martin)

This seminar seeks to tackle one of the toughest balancing acts in youth work – how to manage behaviour but also keep groups interesting, lively and most importantly God-focussed.

E. Children's Programme Planning (Alison)

How to create a children's programme that reaches out to the different learning styles present and helps the children to engage with the Bible.

F. Storytelling Techniques (Heather)

A whistle-stop tour through the many different storytelling techniques you can use with children 0-11.

G. Games Without Frontiers (Berni)

Using games as a learning experience within your youth groups.

H. Children's & Youth Dance & Drama

Some ideas about using Dance and Drama with children or youth.

I. Craft Ideas (Heather)

Lots of practical ideas for your children's groups, plus a chance to try for yourself.
